Agronet overview

Agronet, LLC is a Maryland-based U.S. wine exporter and wholesale distributor serving qualified B2B hospitality and trade buyers in Côte d'Ivoire and West Africa.

01 Who this supports

Hotels, restaurants, bars, lounges, hospitality groups, importers, distributors, and trade intermediaries.

02 Portfolio focus

Established California producers, with J. Lohr as a flagship focus, selected for professional service conditions.

03 Commercial model

Purchase-order workflow rather than online checkout. Availability, vintage, format, and pricing are confirmed for each request.

Order flow

01

Producer sourcing

Direct sourcing from established U.S. producers, with J. Lohr as a flagship focus.

02

Specification control

Confirm product specification, quantity, labels, packaging, and destination documentation before export.

03

Trade support and risk controls

Clarify responsibilities, documents, and request parameters to support predictable execution.

04

Logistics coordination

Plan freight handling, timing, and transport conditions as part of quality management.

05

Arrival and follow-through

Coordinate local checks, order alignment, availability confirmation, and delivery scheduling.
